

Taller 6A | Children's Library in "La Ciudadela"

— 4:00 pm | November 7, 2013

The children's library, located in the west part of "La Ciudadela", can be accessed from the interior of the building or from the street, and it is sectioned by the perimeter corridor of the building. The project for this area connects both sections and guarantees the safety of the children. The section beside the street houses the Braille area, a multipurpose space, digital teaching, the toy library, and a specialized area for babies, everything organized around a patio; the second one, around a garden that connects this area with the central patio of the building, contains the general library and the workshop area; this differentiation of sections allows the division between playing and reading areas to avoid distractions in the last one.

In its interior, bookcases and the control points are solved with independent circular elements adapted to each need that permits free flows, a general visual contact of the area, and to concentrate small groups of children inside them. The space, all in white and clear wood in the floor, makes highlight the color in the furniture and an artistic intervention.
